FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the guidelines for my video?

The point of your video is to show us your personality and a slice of your life. It is not recommended that you perform skits or scripted material. Our goal is to get to know you, and your goal is to convince us that you are a match for this adventure of a lifetime. Talk about anything that represents who you are and what you will bring to the group. If you are social, smart, crafty, athletic, influential, a leader ... you have to tell us, otherwise we'll never know.

Don't forget to make sure there is ample light and that we can hear you. It's always a good idea to turn on all the lights in the house if you are taping inside. And don't forget to turn the TV, dishwasher and radio off. If you are taping outside, make sure you are taping during the day and that that it isn't too windy so that we can hear you.

How will I know if I have made it to the next round?

We will notify all contestants who will be invited to the in-person interviews by phone. These interviews will be conducted in approximately 11 locations nationwide.

How do I know if you received my application and video?

Unfortunately, due to the high volume of mail we anticipate receiving from applicants, we will not be able to answer any questions about the receipt of your application and video. All the major courier services can track packages, so we suggest that you send it via one of them.

Can I get my application video returned to me?

No. All videotapes will become the sole property of the Producers once submitted, and will not be returned to you, whether or not you are selected as a contestant.
